

Kern Reading Association presents
Sharing a Love of Literacy
Book Talk Tea

Come join us for tea, cookies, scones, and a love of literacy!

DATE: Thursday, April 25, 4:30-6:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Amy B. Seibert Elementary School, 2800 Agate St., Bakersfield, CA 93304

The KRA Book Talk Tea is an informative and fun-filled event that is held every year. It is a celebration of books in which a host/hostess selects a book to share, decorates a table with the book's theme, and briefly shares why the book was chosen and how it might be used with students. The afternoon also includes the opportunity to win one of several prize drawings. Russo's Books will once again be there to sell the highlighted books.

Host a table for 8 - $52.50

Single reservation - $7.50

RSVP by April 19, 2024 (using the registration form)

www.kernreadingassociation.org

Questions or more information?

Contact Brenda Russell: silkyterrier2@att.net or call (661) 203-6470

